II. Announcements

a. Community Policing Meeting located at Adam Clayton State Building on, March 14 6:30 - 8:30pm

III. Informational updates

NYPD

- a. Deputy Inspector Federoff, new C.O. of 25th Precinct introduced himself. Robberies are up, Felony assaults are down, burglaries are up 43%, grand larceny is down, crime is down over the last 28 periods. Only one non fatal shooting in district.
- b. PO Gibbons of the 23rd Precinct: Crime is up from the same period last year, however we are down for the year. Most significant event was murdered by gunshot at East River Development on Feb 15; the cause may have been based on an argument at a basketball game. No leads yet but the investigation is under way. Grand larcenies is rising, financial crimes, identity theft, etc.

MTA Police Department

- c. Captain Anthony Dominici: The captain reported since beginning of January to February, there has been 3 arrests, 72 summonses, and 242 aided intakes. Number 1 summons was idle engines to taxi's. K2 is on the rise in the perimeter, from 2 violations to 13. Also the captain brought us an update on our capital construction project, apparently the metal for the staircase was substandard and was already rusting. This will cause a delay on the overall project, we do not have a date of commencement as of yet

District Attorney's office

- d. Madai Velez - 2 announcements: Youth empowerment summit at Dream Charter school, April 14. Every year DA holds a crime victims vigil for anyone that has lost a family member or been a victim to crime, April 8, at west 77th street church

IV. Presentations & Discussions

- a. Request to co-name the northeast corner of 111th Street and Fifth Ave as "111th Street Old-Timers Way"

Debbie Quinones - The committee requested more signatures from the immediate surrounding buildings.

V. Old Business
